

Linstead Award holders

1995

Mr Andrew J McGuire
Robert Gordon University
Aberdeen
"Pharmaceutical Care Planning in a Community Setting"

1996

Mr Noel Dixon
Dixon & Spearman Ltd
Co Durham
"Can a community pharmacy influence the control of disease in people with diabetes through the use of a local quality assurance scheme?"

Miss Nicola Gray
Department of Pharmacy
University of Manchester
"A study to explain the sources and impact of information and advice on medicines and health in young adults"

1997

Miss Nicola Gray
Department of Pharmacy
University of Manchester
"Sources and impact of mass media health information for young adults (16-24 years old)"

Ms Joanne Barnes
Department of Complementary Medicines
University of Exeter
"Uncovering potential problems associated with complementary medicines: a survey of community pharmacists"

1998

Dr Robert Horne
Department of Pharmacy
University of Brighton
"The influence of perceived symptoms on illness and medication beliefs and on adherence behaviours in a sample of hypertensive patients"

Mr Charles Morecroft
Romiley
Stockport
"An investigation into pharmacists' beliefs and the influence they have on counter prescribing"

1999

Mrs Jane Urie
Palliative Care Pharmacist
Strathclyde University

“A randomised control trial of structured pharmaceutical care planning versus current pharmaceutical practice for cancer patients receiving palliative care in the community”

2000

Ms Sara Chait
School of Pharmacy
University of London

“Factors affecting patients’ decisions when beginning courses of antidepressants for the treatment of depression”

2001

Mr Charles Morecroft
School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences
University of Manchester

“The construction of appropriateness: Q-methodology”

Ms Emma Jones
Welsh School of Pharmacy
Cardiff University

“Lay Management of Health and Illness – a qualitative approach”

Dr Philip Bates
Community Pharmacist
Southampton

Support to undertake modules on the MSc Public Health at the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

2002

Ms Rachel Mullen
Research Practitioner
School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences
University of Manchester

“Skill mix in community pharmacy: exploring and defining the roles of dispensary support staff”

2003

Ms Rachel Britton
School of Pharmacy
University of Bath

“Investigation into the quality and standard of pharmaceutical care provision to drug misusers and development of a good practice model”

Mr Tim O’Donoghue & Mr John Foreman
Greenlight Pharmacy

“The feasibility and acceptability of concordance in pharmacy practice”

2004

Mrs Wendy Gidman
School of Pharmacy
University of Manchester

“Working patterns of female community pharmacists over the age of 30: an exploration of the factors that motivate working practice”

2005

Miss Ranjita Dhital
Substance Misuse Service
Central and North West London Mental Health NHS Trust

“An evaluation of an alcohol screening service in community pharmacy”

Dr Jennifer Scott
Department of Pharmacy and Pharmacology
University of Bath

“Why pharmacy based needle exchange is failing to expand in response to increasing need and how can this problem be overcome?”

Dr Louise Hughes
Welsh School of Pharmacy
Cardiff University

“The role of the Welsh language in community pharmacy service provision in Wales”

2006

Mr Gianpiero Celino
Keele University

“Patient centred outcomes from medicines use review (MUR)”

Mr James Desborough
School of Chemical Sciences and Pharmacy
University of East Anglia

“Medicines Use Reviews: what is their effect on patient self reported adherence?”

2007

Miss Nicola Greenhill
School of Pharmacy
University of Nottingham

“An exploration of pharmacist-patient communication in clinic consultations: a qualitative study”

Dr Raisa Laaksonen
Department of Pharmacy & Pharmacology
University of Bath

“Involving pharmacy students in quality assurance processes – a pilot study”

2008

Richard Cooper

University of Sheffield

“To explore over the counter (OTC) medicine abuse and misuse – customer, supplier and policy maker insights”

Trudy Thomas

Medway School of Pharmacy

“To study the implementation and effectiveness of a community pharmacy based physical activity counselling scheme in the adjunctive treatment of mild to moderate depression.”

2009

Abdul-Wahid Mohammad

Robert Gordon University, Aberdeen

“Evaluating the clinical outcomes of a community pharmacy cardiovascular disease clinic. A pilot study.”

William Horsley

Pharmacist, NHS North of Tyne

“An evaluation of an integrated care pathway for inflammatory bowel disease.”

Rod Tucker

Community Pharmacist, East Yorkshire

An investigation into the range of skin problems encountered in community pharmacy and the extent of pharmacist engagement with patients having a skin disease”.